

New Castle County Police Recruits Train at DSFS

On July 12th and 13th the New Castle County Police Dept. sent its Recruit Class to the Delaware State Fire School for its Law Enforcement Fire Survival Course.

Twenty-two students were present over the two days and were exposed to training in Hazardous Materials Identification, Fire Extinguisher Training, Fire Behavior, Sprinklers and Ladder Training.

Pictured: Students learn about thermal balance from Instructor Russ Amidon